Don't you have a wrap or carrier yet? Would you like to try one before you buy your own wrap, ringsling, carrier or mei tai? Or do you just want to try out a different option? That's possible with our Sling Library!

The rules

Select the item you want to borrow and put it in your cart. You pay the price of the item as shown, that is the deposit. Slings & Things will send the item to you with returning information in the box. You can lend the item for a maximum of 5 weeks. The rental period starts at the day that the package is delivered by the postal service. As soon as Slings & Things has received the item back in a good shape we will check the total rental time. The day you send the item back to us is the last day of your rental period. The total amount (rent + shipping costs) will be collected from the deposit and the rest of the deposit will be refunded to your bank account within 14 days after we've received the package. Simple as that!
